DENISE COTE, District Judge:

The defendant having indicated an intention to enter a plea of guilty, it is hereby ORDERED that defense counsel shall promptly advise the Court whether the defendant wishes that plea to be entered in court or through a Court Call videoconference.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that should the defendant prefer to enter his plea during an in-court proceeding, and defense counsel being unable to travel to New York, defense counsel shall arrange for another member of the CJA panel to be present in the courtroom during the plea. Defense counsel shall be permitted to participate in the in-court proceeding via telephone. Arrangements will be made for private consultation between the defendant and his client should either of them wish for such consultation to occur during the proceeding.
